CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

It is with sadness that I have to report the death of a very long standing committee member - Peter Davis. He will be greatly missed both on the committee and as a companion on our visits to both Ermont and Hennef.

We have been to Ermont and also Hennef this year. Firstly 14 golfers headed to Ermont at the end of May for our annual golf match, which was held at Golf Dolce Chantilly. Unfortunately we came second, but it was a thoroughly enjoyable day.

We were also accompanied on the trip by 21 other members for a general visit and they visited the Vexin area and visited the castle there. On the Saturday evening, everyone met up for a buffet supper with music and dancing.

Our visit to Hennef in mid-September was for their 2 day Stadtfest, (similar to our canal day). After the opening ceremony we were taken to the Ahr Valley to visit a nuclear war bunker which is now a museum. Following this we visited the Mayschoss Winery, where we had a tour of their cellars, followed by a wine tasting and supper. The Sunday was spent at the Stadtfest.

We had a stall this year at both the Banbury & District Show, where the weather was good and also at Canal Day, where unfortunately it rained. I would like to thank all the committee members who helped on the stands and special thanks to Jenny for the lovely cake.
